

Behavioral Health & Crisis Response Services

A community-based system of social work and psychiatric service designed to support the diverse range of behavioral health needs for children, adults, and families, while providing opportunities for awareness, growth, empowerment, and healing.

Services

- Assertive Community Treatment (ACT)
- Behavioral health counseling
- Home-based crisis intervention
- Mobile crisis
- OnTrackNY
- School-based behavioral health
- Youth ACT

Educational Services

Educational, career development, and clinical services for children and young adults with special needs related to social-emotional functioning, academics, and life planning that ensures sustainability and future student success.

Educational Facilities

Northern Rivers has two diploma-granting special ed (853) facilities:

- Neil Hellman School, serving grades K–12
60 Academy Road, Albany
- The School at Northeast, serving grades 6–12
1821 Hamburg Street, Schenectady

And a center for infants and toddlers:

- Early Learning Center, serving Early Head Start, pre-K, and day care
125 Bigelow Avenue, Schenectady

Residential & Foster Care Services

A continuum of safe and therapeutic home- and facility-based residential environments with comprehensive services for children and the families who support them.

Services

- Residential treatment centers
- Residential treatment facility
- Community residences
- Prevention
- Respite and crisis stabilization
- Foster care
- Post-adoption support
- Independent living

Coordinated Care & Community Solutions

A care management and clinical services system designed to support children in meeting their individual needs and providing families with skills, resources, and services that increase their ability to support children in their development.

Services

- Prevention and family preservation
- Home- and Community-Based Services Waiver Programs (mental health and child welfare)
- Home- and Community-Based Services (HARP)
- Mental health case management
- Peer services
- Health home care management

Sidney Albert Training & Research Institute

The SATRI team collaborates with businesses, human services agencies, school districts, and institutes of higher learning to provide training opportunities to professionals, community members, children, adults, and families.

Services

- Customized training workshops tailored to specific interests or challenges of any agency, contractor, or school district
- Curriculum and training material development tailored to any specification
- NYSED-approved for continuing education (CE) hours toward LMSW, LCSW, and LMHC recertification
- Trainings including Mental Health First Aid (MHFA), Dignity for All Students Act (DASA), Red Cross First Aid/CPR, Crisis Intervention/Therapeutic Response, Wellness and Self-Care for workers and caregivers
- Management and oversight of grants
- Coordination and development of conferences

Unlimited Potential

Unlimited Potential increases the opportunities of individuals with mental illness by providing vocational rehabilitation and employment services.

Services

- One-on-one employment services to determine job preparedness, develop job search strategies, provide on-site job training, support and advocacy
- Support in all aspects of vocational services
- Transition services to support as they move from high school to the world of work and adult life
- Individual testing programs to help find what types of careers work best for each individual while considering personality, capabilities, aptitudes and education
- A social model day program serving eligible individuals age 50 and older to reduce isolation and increase social interaction through a variety of social, physical, and educational activities
- Peer support services emphasize independence and self-reliance and develops the skills needed to function in the community outside of the mental health system